

AVAILABILITY

- Interview: minimal notice
- Start: immediately
- Vacations / Absences: nothing planned

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

- Over 4 years of experience as a BI Consultant / Data Analyst in large environments such as Visier and Colliers.
- Strong English writing skills with the ability to create clear and concise technical documentation:
  - Visier INC: Created and presented technical documentation for customers to outline the functionality and architecture of their application.
  - Visier INC: Created internal documentation that captured challenges and workarounds during the development process. This documentation is now used for new hire onboarding and training of developers.
  - Colliers: Documented test cases, captured test results and created bug reports using the web application Jira.
- Experienced working with Data and ETL technology:
  - Visier INC: Developed and maintained the data warehouse for various fortune 500 companies using Visier proprietary ETL technology.
  - Colliers: Achieved understanding of software development and software architecture through data modeling, app deployment and app development using the low-code platform OutSystems.
- An excellent communicator who possesses the ability to be a true bridge between technical and functional teams.
- Holds a Master of Administrative Science and a Bachelor of Economics.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Visier Inc. May 2018 – April 2020

Business Intelligence Consultant May 2019 – April 2020

- Onboarded several HR topics such as: Organization Hierarchies, Talent Acquisition, Compensation, Engagement, and Succession, amongst others.
- Created and presented technical documentation for customers to outline the functionality and architecture of applications.
- Created comprehensive user stories using Jira.
- Assisted customers in developing BI reporting analysis using Visier proprietary technology.
- Conducted meetings with customers to determine business requirements, establish expectations, and provide added value.

Data Engineer May 2018 – May 2019

- Developed and maintained the data warehouse for various fortune 500 companies using Visier proprietary ETL technology.

- Customized two web analytics applications using Visier domain specific language.
- Investigated and resolved customer requests regarding their HR data using Linux Queries, Python, and other internal tools.
- Created internal documentation that captured challenges and workarounds during the development process. This documentation became part of the new hire onboarding documentation and helped many developers overcome challenges.
- Wrote and presented technical documentation for customers that explained the functionality and architecture of their applications.
- Created comprehensive user stories using Jira.
- Assisted customers in developing BI reporting analysis using Visier proprietary technology.
- Conducted meetings with customers to determine business requirements, establish expectations, and provide added value.

Colliers International
Data Intelligence Associate

June 2016 – October 2017

- Participated in an Agile Software Development Project, testing a deal tracking system that managed the financial and legal aspects of over $300 million in deals across 50+ office locations.
- Developed software testing skills through test planning, test preparation and dynamic test execution.
- Documented test cases, captured test results, and created bug reports using Jira.
- Achieved understanding of software development and software architecture through data modeling, app deployment and app development using the low-code platform, OutSystems.

EDUCATION

Fairleigh Dickinson University
Master of Administrative Science

2015

Universidad de Carlos III de Madrid
Bachelor of Economics

2012

SKILLS SUMMARY

Technical Skills: Linux, Python, SQL, Power BI, and Regex

Tools: Jira, Confluence, Office, Visio, Filmora Scrn, CRM Systems and HRIS Systems